5. Planning Application DC/17/04439 – Erection of detached one and a half story dwelling and detached garage. Land Adjacent The Laurels, Whatfield Road, Naughton, Ipswich IP7 7BP

The Chairman gave a brief description of the proposed development.

There were members of the public present who were occupants of the properties adjacent to the site. Concerns were voiced that the proposed construction was too high and too large. The upper rear windows would overlook the garden and windows of the Laurels.

The accuracy of the historic data in the Application was questioned.

Councillors discussed the Application and agreed unanimously that it should be opposed because the proposed construction was too large and would have unacceptable impact on the adjacent properties.
